

Catherine Stagner Bio

Catherine Stagner is a recent graduate from Kansas State University with a degree in Vocal Performance. She has worked professionally in a plethora of vocal genres including musical theater, opera, choral ensemble work, vocal jazz, and others. Her studio hopes to use bel canto singing to develop the student's technique and artistry while improving their performance value and musicianship qualities.